BREED THEATER.

"A Ship Boy's Grit," Thrilling Story, Photographed in Holland.

Photographed in Holland.

All lovers of the sea will appreciate this charming story by the Pathe company, which was photographed on and about the Isie of Marken, Holland. There have been many pictures of this kind attempted, but it remained for Pathe to step in and supply the deficiencies of the other films, and bring into the picture the necessary atmosphere. In no part of the picture is it apparent that the play is being produced by actors, but seems like an ordinary every-day affair. Some charming bits of scenery are introduced in the picture and the result is a film-drama of the first water.

"The Physician of Silver Guich" supplies the western flavor to the bill and tells a forceful tale that is filled with Incidents calculated to please these who like the representations of the life in the west, as it really is.

The funny Mr. Bunny nearly convalues his audiences with his funny antice and funny face, in a clever little comedy entitled Bachelor Buttons, and Miss Finch does likewise in Diama's Legacy.

PROMISE BROKEN AT THE DAVIS.

The photo play, The Amateur Iceman, promised for Thursday, is not being shown because of the fact that Mr. Davis saw and engaged one he likes better. The special which he was able to make arrangements for is called "She Cried" with Miss Florence There are playing "She" While in the Ship.

At the Breadway Congregational Turner playing "She." While in the action of the play Miss Turner does a whole lot of crying you may be sure you will not weep for her, for "She Fried" was "built for laughing pura question if you find time as theater while Marie Lee and her eminary Girls are with us. The show fiered for the current three days may be improved upon in the show for alonday. Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, but if it is there will be need of an addition being built to a theater that seems all too small to take care of the crowds who wish to risit it.

At Trinity Episcopal church there will be Holy Communion at 3.30 a. m., morning prayer and sermon at 10.50 a. m. and evening prayer and sermon at 7.30 p. m. The rector will officiate.

On next week's bill at the Auditorium a famous historical feature will be shown in three reels. It is Custer's Last Fisht, about which every American boy and girl have read during their grammar schooling. The picture was taken in a place which is almost was taken in a place which is almost a complete reproduction of the spot where the original battle took place, and it is claimed that some of the old Indians who were engaged in the original battle are also seen in this picture. There is no added story or anything of that sort connected with the feature, but it simply gives the fight as nearly to history as was possible. Owing to the length of this film it will be shown at 2.30, 7 and 8.45 sharp. The management requests that all who can, come to the matines on Monday and Tuesday, as usually when we run a big feature the svening shows are so crowded that it is uncomfortable and many are unable to get seats. So it those who can will come in the afternoon they will be much better satisfied and also leave more room for those who can only come in the evening.

A special vaudeville feature on Mon.

A special vaudeville feature on Monday's bill will be Marion Munson, supported by Hal Forrest, in Mr. Forrest's protean offering, The Kidnapping of Bianca. It is a very pretty stary, dealing with the romance of a young Italian girl, and in which Miss Munson plays six different female characters, changing from one to the other with such rapidity and completeness of detail as to make her audience gasp in wonderment.

Frank Falmer, a clever comedy cartonist, will fill out the vaudeville part of the programme for the first half of the week in first class order.

Y. M. C. A. Entertainment Course. This season's entertainment course under the Y. M. C. A. auspices will open at the Central Baptist church on Monday evening with a concert by the Marquarre Sextette, which consists of six leading artists of the Boston Symphony orchestra.

As a conductor, Andre Marquarre has long been identified with the so-called Boston "Pops." His leading is distinguished by magnetism and enthusiasm and the programmes he arranges are a delight to his audiences. Mr. Marquarre is a composer of several operas and orchestra selections. He is first flutist with the Boston Symphony orchestra.

He is first finitist with the Boston Symphony orchestra.

The solo violinist, Mr. Julius Von Theodorowicz was concert master of the Berlin Philharmonic orchestra, and in 1293 became first violinist of the Boston Symphony orchestra. He was a member of the famous Kneisel quar-

The sextette also includes Alexander Ribarsch, second violinist, formerly concert master of the imperial Karl theater in Vienna; Alfred Gietzen, viola, a soloist of recognized ability; Joseph Kellar, 'celle soloist, and Max O. Kunne, double bass.

The concert will be given in the Central Baptist church. Doors will be open at 7.56 p. m. and the programme begin promptly at eight. Tickets can be secured at the G. A. Davis store or at the door, Over 806 tickets have been disposed of and a large attendance is assured.

POETRY

THE FALL OF THE YEAR.

With its odors o apples and the must of the graps.

And the leaves all colored jest any old shape.

And plaintive Bob White whiteless merries; when Tail of the year has come back again;

again,
And I let down the bars o' the stobble field then,
And hie me away to the woods and the wold.

again, And the weather jest similes no longs And the trees in the distance are hasy and brown. And the laxy old cattle are standing And I love jest to bask in sich haleyed days,
And throw away trouble that on me soul weighs;
They tinge up the future with some sort o' hope.
Like seeing the things in a ka-leide scope, And I love alf-around me the tenderest

-Douglas Dobbins IS MAN BUT & SHADOWY

And something laughs and leaps and And dashes at the hill of life,
And dies for benov's familed wrongs,
And girives for very leve of strife. And out of dull disaster gains
The strength that hopeless causes

And out of death's subdaing pages Cries, "Dying and beheld we live."

This would I pray thee do: aside not there,
From thy heart's door unlosse the soundless bars.
Walk forth into the hely evening air.
Lift up thine eyes and look upon the stars!

Wiseman—What, to your mind, most clearly represents the ephemerality of fame and the vanity of human wishestate. These lots are fifty (59) feet frentage on ocean and one hundred fifty (156) feet deep. In the rear of these lots there is a sait water pond nime miles long, sandy bottom, excellent beating and fishing. The price of these lots is two hundred ($200) dollars. Remember the prices that were paid for lots at Pleasant View four years ago and the prices that are being paid now. These cottage sites that I am offering for only $280 are on the same ocean, same beach, only a few miles east of Pleasant View. Here is a chance to buy a seashore cottage site at a low figure and have it increase in value many fold in a year or two. Avail yourselves of this opportunity and don't be among those that will say (after they are all sold) I wish I had bought one. Come and look these lots ever and remember if you purchase one I pay your expenses for any distance not over 100 miles. Transportation from Westerly in auto. Investigate.
